

DeCal Sponsorship

The DeCal Program (or just DeCal) is an aggregate of student-run courses at the University of California, Berkeley – here, students create and facilitate their own classes on a variety of subjects, many of which are not addressed in the traditional curriculum.

Each semester there are over 150 courses on topics ranging from Taiwanese Language to Simpsons and Philosophy. Around 3000-4000 UC Berkeley students take DeCals each semester. DeCals are an excellent way of meeting the University's minimum unit requirement, developing a new or past interest, and meeting peers in a small, comfortable environment. The DeCal Program is undoubtedly one of the many unique aspects of Berkeley's undergraduate program, and all students are encouraged to consider taking a course!

Offering a DeCal Course through the Sociology Department

Course Number:

Sociology DeCal class will be offered as 198.

Deadlines for Fall 2021:

The deadline to submit the completed course proposal to the Academic Senate is Tuesday, July 13th 11, 2021.

For Spring 2021, please email your course proposals to Amie Acik (amieacik@berkeley.edu) by our departmental deadline which is Friday, June 25th, 2021. We will not take late course proposals.
