

*I'm interested in these two courses, but one ends at 10:59am and the other starts at 11am. Can I still take both courses? What is Berkeley Time?

All courses at UCB start 10 minutes after the published hour. If a course is scheduled to start at 11am, it will actually start at 11:10am. This is true for both lecture and discussion sections. This is commonly referred to as 'Berkeley Time.'
