

Research projects for Liv Duesund 2019-2022,

University of Oslo & University of California, Berkeley

1.

A Comparative Study of Teachers Coping Skills when Approaching Disruptive Behavior in Schools in Norway and USA.

Head of project: Professor Liv Duesund, Department of Special Needs Education (DSNE) University of Oslo & Project Scientist, Sociology Department University of California, Berkeley.

Project participants:

Professor Elliot Turiel, Graduate School of Education University of California, Berkeley (UCB) and post doc, PhD Magnar Ødegård, DSNE/ University of Oslo.

The post.doc. is funded by the Department of Educational Sciences/ University of Oslo.

Timeline: Starting: October 2019

Ending: October 2022.

2.

The Development of Understandings of Equality and Distribution of Resources in Norway and the United States

Head of project: Professor Liv Duesund, Department of Special Needs Education University of Oslo & Project Scientist, Sociology Department University of California, Berkeley.

Project participants: Professor Elliot Turiel, Graduate School of Education University of California, Berkeley; Associate professor Audun Dahl, Department of Psychology, University of California, Santa Cruz.

During spring 2019 we will apply for funding from Norwegian Research Council.

Our application will include funding for 2 PhD students that are affiliated to UCB and UIO.

Timeline: Starting: October 2019

Ending: October 2022.